

ment

AT BAKERSFIELD.COM/JOBS

SAMY ABIAOUI, PAMELA HOLIWELL, TONY MARTINEZ and GREG MUIR have joined the board of directors of Goodwill Industries of South Central California. Abiaoui is vice president and a commercial loan officer at Mission Bank. Holiwell is assistant director of the Kern County Department of Human Services' Employment & Financial Services Bureau. Martinez is a community relations specialist at the Bakersfield Police Department. Muir is a partner at The Law Offices of Young Wooldridge LLP. The 20-member board sets policy, develops resources and administers the nonprofit retail chain, which provides work opportunities and skills development to people dealing with barriers to employment.

RYAN G. BECKWITH has been promoted to become Bakersfield College's director of athletics. Beckwith previously served as an adjunct instructor and assistant track coach at the college. He has also worked at UCLA in athletics marketing and as an assistant coach. In his new position, Beckwith is to work with the school's fundraising and development staff, putting together events and outreach efforts for athletics alumni. He earned a bachelor's degree in communications at Cal State Northridge and a master's degree in education in sports management at the University of Georgia.

JACOB MARQUEZ has been named chairman of the Bakersfield Association of Realtors' Young Professionals Network, and BOBBY MORENO and JULIE DOMLAO have been appointed co-chairs. All three work at Coldwell Banker Preferred, Realtors. Realtor Magazine formed the network in 2006 to help build a stronger link between younger Realtors and the real estate industry.

vements and other business "people siness editor, P.O. Bin 440, Bakersfield, tos that are submitted cannot be re-

The Bakersfield Californian

monster®

www.bakersfield.com/jobs

TO ADVERTISE, CALL 322.JOBS

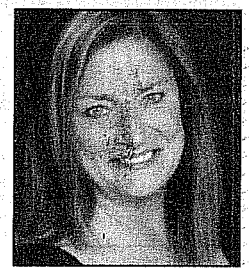

Bloemhof

Gearhart

Garcia

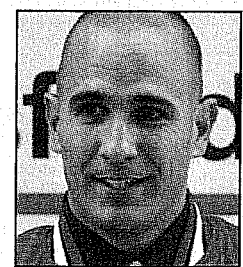

Brennan

Gullane

Abiaoui

Beckwith

Marquez

